Rev. Thomas Dawson, the oldest Haptist minister in South Carolina, died in the ninetisth or ninety-first year of his age at his residence in Pendleton on last Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness of several months. Mr. Dawson was a useful and plous Christian minister, whose good works will live after him. We regret that the news of his death reached us too late to prepare a proper notice of his life for this paper, but hope some friend who has the information sary will furnish us a sketch of his life for our next issue. The present session of the Carolina Collegiate Institute will close next week with an exhibition, the programme for which embraces Wednesday and Thursday nights. embraces Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Mr. Brown is an Andersonian, and his many friends will be glad to know that he is again all right.

The fete champetre given by the ladies of the Episcopal Church on Thursday night last was largely attended, and in every respect successful and enjoyable. It was had in the beautiful grove in front of Dr. Nardin's residence, which was illuminated by a large number of Chinese lanterns suspended on cords stretched from tree to tree. The tables, ladened with refreshments of every kind, and placed in different parts of the yard, were attended by the young ladies of the Church and liberally patronized by those present. The young people seemed to enjoy the evening quite as much as is usual on such occasion. The net proceeds of the evening's sales amounted to about

The survey of the Savannah Valley Railroad has been completed, and the engineer corps engaged in the work returned to this place on Tuesday. An accurate survey of the route was made to Dorn's Mine, from which point a preliminary survey was made to Edgefield C. 3., to which place it is now proposed to extend the Road, connecting there with a projected line to Aiken. The entire line from Anderson to Aiken is most practicable, and can be constructed for a emparatively small sum of money. The people of Edgefield, we understand, are aroused on the subject, and recognize the mportance of co-operating with the interested townships in Anderson and Abbeville Counties in securing its extension to that place. A report giving all the details of the survey will be submitted by Maj. Lee to the Board of Directors at their meeting last Friday in the seventy-seventh year of in Anderson on next Thursday, which we

Masonie Dedication at Greenville. A short time since an invitation was exended to the members of Hiram Lodge, No. 68, A. F. M., and other Lodges of the County by Recovery Lodge, No. 31, to visit and assist in the ceremonies of dedication of its new lodge-room on the evening the 24th ultimo. By the absence of the receiver, excursion rates were not secured until the Wednesday before, and even at that late hour for preparation forty-seven attended from Anderson and nine from Belton. The trip over was pleasant and rapid, the fraternity having aboard a large quantity of lemonade with which to cool the heated excursionists. Reaching Greenville at an early hour, time was given the visitors to see a great deal of the city. At fo'clock the fraterni-ty seembled in the new lodge-room in Mauldin's Block. The room is large and well ventilated, is reached by an easy and broad flight of stairs, and is well lighted with gas. Ample furniture and ante-rooms have been made, and the whole building is well arranged for the purposes of Masonry. The furniture of the lodge is new, handsome, and reflects much credit on the energy of the members of the lodge. A great many, not meathers of the order, including the fair ses, were seated in the hall to view the ceremonies of dedication, conducted by the officers of the Grand Lodge. The following officers of Hiram Lodge were present and participated in the exercises : R. F. Divver, M. ; J. J. Baker, S. W.; J. A. Daniels, J. W.; W. D. Maroney, S. D.; J. M. Payne, J. D. Thera were sav-eral officers and members of Hermon

Lodge, No. 116, present. Grand Master A. T. Smythe, of Charles-ton, officiated with becoming grace, and Grand Chaplain Eliison Capers conducted tired to the Odd Fellows room adjoining, where the Lodge was closed in due form, The members, guests and lady visitors then repaired to the room below, where a splendid collation was spread, consisting of cakes, creams, ices, etc., and there was plenty and to spare. After all had partaken to their capacity, the crowd dispersed, well pleased with the hospitality and cordiality of their Greenville hosts.

At 8:30 next day the visitors embarked for home, and we have yet to hear of the first man who did not enjoy his trip. Dr. R. F. Divver, Worshipful Master of Hiram Lodge, deserves great credit for his attention and energy in making the affair a omplete success.

Williamston.

Candidates are numerous and at work on this side of the County. No man will be without friends in Williamston for the next Marshalship for South Carolina. He is also four months..... A light shower of rain fell here last Friday. It cooled the atmosphere and brightened the faces of the farmers considerably Capt. B. C. Martin, I am told. explanation of his withdrawal from the made seventy bushels of oats on one acroof field. Neither Hayes nor Garfield will ever ground. The yield of wheat is poor, even see that office filled by an appointment of poorer than was expected by many. Major theirs. The next U. S. Marshal for this T. F. Anderson sowed one bushel and threshed three pecks..... Everybody seems to be satisfied with the nomination made by the Cincinnati Convention. Many of the reading men of this section preferred Bay-ard, but are content in the belief that Hancock is perhaps the most available man in the party. The citizens of Williamston are proud of the attention shown the South Carolina delegation in Cincinnati, especially the 'frequent calls made from time to time during the progress of the Convention for Hampton. Carolina loves to honor Hampton, and it makes her heart glad to see him honored outside the bounds of his own State.....The next session of the Williamston Male High School begins next Monday. The principal, Mr. J. M. Pickle, is very popular here, and but for his native would be better known in this county and others. He goes next Fall to the John Hopkins University. His patrons dislike to give him up, but admire his determination to prepare himself still more thoroughly for the great responsibilities of Knile.

A Suggestion. gestions to our colored friends of Anderson and vicinity relative to the extreme superstition of singing and praying all night over the dead. We fail to see the necessity suggest to the colored people that this is not a decent method of honoring the dead —not by any means. It begets three evils: 1. It harrasses and distu be the mind and bereaved. 2. It is seriously unpleasant and offensive to the community in which it is carried on. 3. It is a poor example to the young of the colored race, upon whom, in a great measure, the future weal of the country depends; and besides, it is a nuisance of the

We do not object to a proper ceremony over the remains, nor to a respectable num-ber of persons remaining with the body as quietly as possible. This is an age of civilization, and the colored people should observe the common proprieties of the times. They have no example of such a method given by the more intelligent portion of our community. We hope that this mode of dishonoring the dead will be discontinued. It is a relic of barbarism. We have always observed that the funeral services and closing ceremonies at the grave were sufficient for any and all purposes.
